TREES
I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;

A tree that looks at God all day,
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;

A tree that may in Summer weat
A nest of robins in her hair;

Upon whose bosom snow has lain'
Who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

—Joyce Kilmer

TREES OF HAWAII
Trees of Hawaii reaching out.
  What special things to see.
Trees of Hawaii
  Welcoming tourists, who alight in glee.
Trees of Hawaii
  Like the people populating these islands free.
Trees of Hawaii
  Boasting faces brown, yellow and white
    Beside the sea.
Trees of Hawaii
  All seasons come without change.
Trees of Hawaii
  Aloha spirit as leis to the surf do range.
Trees of Hawaii
  Kukui, Monkey Pod, Banyon and Ironwood too.
Trees of Hawaii
  Mango, Papaya, bearing fruits and nuts,
    Exotic tastes etched.
Trees of Hawaii
  Hula dancers singing in the wind.
Trees of Hawaii
  Island legends, stories without end.
Trees of Hawaii
  Reaching out toward the sky. Trees Trees,
Trees of Hawaii.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The "tree of education" at Hawaiian Mission Academy has added another growth ring. By the time this book is distributed, another "crop" of graduates will be matured for harvest. The life of the Christian is much like a tree: roots deep in the life-giving soil of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ; trunk continually growing broader, taller, and stronger as life adds experience to experience; and a crown of leaves and blossoms that turn always to the shining of God's love for warmth and energy while providing shelter and refreshing within its shadow. As the fruit tree increases its yield year by year, so the maturing Christian continues to bear more abundantly of the "fruit of the Spirit" (Gal. 5:22,23). May this be our happy experience until we sit together in the earth-made-new under the branches of the Tree of Life. Robert A. Atkins, Principal

"TREES"
Trees reach toward the heavens.
We too strive for highest and best.
Trees living day by day.
Gratitude show in their many splendors.
Trees stand true, firm and statuelike.
Examples for men who stand for Christ.
Trees beautify silhouette against the velvet sky.
Dawn, sunset, summer, winter pass by.
Trees display serenity and love that is in the nature of God.
Trees exhibit precious masterpieces
In the art gallery of God.
I think, I think, I think, I shall never see
A poem lovely, lovely as a tree.

—Lynda Nissen

Left: The Sound of Praise is a special group of students who have volunteered to be witnesses for God in school as well as the community.

Above: The French horn is the most difficult instrument to learn to play. However, Scott makes it look easy.

Left: The newest musical group to be added to our music family is the Men's Choir. These men have provided outstanding concerts. The debute at Aiea SDA Church was fantastic. HMA students are looking forward to bigger and better productions from this group.

CHOIR

H.M.A.'s 67 voice choir went on a tour this year to the island of Hawaii. Their concert in music was heard in Hilo, Kona, Volcano House, shopping centers and churches.

The sharp looking outfits complimented the beautiful music performed by the band at their first concert of the year on December 12, 1978 in assembly. Their first performance will long be remembered, especially the horse's neigh in the band's rendition of "Sleigh Bells."

GRADUATION

Edgar A. Guest

This is the end of a dream begun
  At the very moment a child is born.
The hope come true that it could be done;
  A triumph held for a far-off morn.
A thrill of pride that is years away
  For daughter or son—graduation day.

'Tis a happy day for the graduate,
  But one for fathers and mothers, too.
A joy for which they have had to wait,
  The glorious thrill of a dream come true.
The tender blend of a smile and sigh
  And often a tear as the class goes by.

This is the well-earned, hard-won goal
  Achieved at last by the young and old;
A willing service of heart and soul
  In a simple printed diploma told:
The graduate fitted life's work to do;
  For mother and father, dream come true.

Well for a younger brother your not all that bad. Like my real brother is a royal pain in the A — .
You really did a good job finding out about the food for the spring banquet. I must admit that at times I felt like just slaping or punching your face, but all in all your a nice guy.
I must say that you have a great personality and you must have inherit it from your parents. I really wish that I could stay back one more year to get to know all you freshmen better.
Your class is full of sprit and when you guys get to be srs. you'll have more unity than any other class.
Take care

One on One Has Always Been Our Best Game

Here at P.U.C. our primary concern is that your college education be exactly what you need. That's why we offer 4, 2, and 1-year programs in a large variety of areas. That's why we insist on keeping our student to faculty ration low (17 to 1)—low enough to encourage productive friendships. And we think you'll find that our mountaintop location and our quality education provide excellent opportunities for personal and spiritual growth.

EH BRAH, WE TRIED!

Getting out this yearbook is no picnic!
If we print jokes, people say we're corny!
If we don't people say we're faculty puppets.
If we stick to the job all day,
We should be out helping our volleyball team;
If we do have a little fun,
We shouldn't be wasting our time.
If we don't print what the Seniors want,
We are criticized for not appreciating true genius;
And if we do, others feel the book is filled with junk.
If we don't cover Reception and Graduation,
We aren't capturing the whole year;
And if we do, the book would come out late.
If your picture isn't in one of the candids,
We only picture the most popular people;
And if it is, you scribble out your face
Because you're so embarassed.
Now, likely as not someone will say that
We swiped this idea from some other book—
And we did!

—But we did try hard and hope that you are pleased with your yearbook.

(This book has been brought to you by the KA LAMAKU STAFF OF 1979. And hopefully brought to you by May 20.)

Dearest Kalani,

Since you gave me all this space to write in. I'm gonna write you a long letter.

It's been a really great pleasure to know you this year. Hope to see you again next year.

Continue to play your clarinet well. Maybe you'll go to 1st ††† Clarint.

There is one thing I'll never forgive you for + that is for picking on me all year long.

Um. Um. Um, have a supa dupa summa, + no look at girls two much.

Much luck in the Summa.

Kalani,

How am I supposed to take up a whole page? Well, I'll just write ~~[illegible]~~ big and talk about anything.

This school year was pretty good I think. I hope you had a good one too. Camp Erdman was lots of fun. And next year we GONNA WIN!!! Right? Pretty soon we're gonna be super sophomores. The class of '82 Da Bess, right?

You better come back next year. I am, so you better. It took a lot of persuading to persuade my mom to let us stay.

Thanks for being our class Pastor. Youre a pretty good one. Well, I hope that you have a super-duper summer. Take care & don't fool around too much. Keep on smiling (that's what I write on all of the annuals, but I mean what I say). And if I don't see ya next year... well, I'll think of something. Keep in touch, and I hope you succeed in everything you want to. God bless, and good luck. Thanks for being a good friend.

Love & Aloha,

Marcie
